

JAMES M. PORFIDO,
ATTORNEY AT LAW

Dedicated to protecting clients' rights and their futures

WHEN PEOPLE ARE FACING THE fight of their life, they turn to attorney James Porfido for his expertise, experience and strategic advocacy in protecting their rights. A criminal defense attorney who has been practicing law for more than 20 years, Porfido meticulously and aggressively represents his clients, leaving no stone unturned to achieve the most favorable results.

Certified as a criminal trial attorney by the Supreme Court of New Jersey since 1995, Porfido focuses solely on criminal defense work. He represents clients against charges ranging from DWI and sex crimes to domestic violence, white collar and juvenile justice offenses, and post-conviction cases including appeal and expungement.

Porfido started his career in the Morris County Prosecutor's Office, where he was section chief of the sex crimes/child abuse and vehicular homicide units and a juvenile prosecutor. This experience provides him deep insight into how clients might be prosecuted, and it helps him anticipate potential issues and arguments.

As a solo practitioner, Porfido gives his clients his undivided attention. "The buck stops with me. I'm making the decisions and going to court," says Porfido, who has been selected for inclusion in New Jersey Super Lawyers® for four years in a row. "You get what you pay for: me fighting for you, not a junior member of the firm. Clients get the benefit of my training, experience, background and reputation."

A frequent legal commentator on tru TV (Court TV), CNN Headline News and other programs, Porfido devotes significant time to giving back to the community by serving on numerous boards.
